Title Generation Equality 2023 - Commitments Reporting Survey

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTIONS

STATIC TEXT

Welcome to the second, annual Generation Equality Commitments Reporting survey!

Prior to filling out the survey, please read the Frequently Asked Questions and the Glossary. Please note that you can download the survey in PDF, excel and word in this survey tool.

If you have questions at any point in the survey, please reach out to UN Women at GEF-accountability@unwomen.org.

This survey will be open to all Commitment Makers from Wednesday, 24 May 2023 to Friday, 23 June 2023. Please note, you can switch the language of the survey between Arabic, English, French, Russian, and Spanish.

The survey should take a maximum of 15 min to complete for organisations with one commitment and about an additional 3-5 minutes for each additional commitment.

Ahead of starting with the survey, please be reminded of the following:

- 1. Each Commitment Maker is expected to submit responses for each of their commitments.*
- 2. Please note that the survey sometimes refers to “your commitment(s)”. This should be understood as “your institution’s or organisation’s commitment(s)”.*
- 3. The survey tries to measure cumulative achievements. Hence it covers the period since the Paris Generation Equality Forum in July 2021. Therefore, even if your institution or organisation has reported last year, you should report again taking into account all achievements since July 2021.*
- 4. Once you have entered your email address on the next page, you will receive an email with your link that enables you to pause and return to the survey at any time during the reporting period.*
- 5. We strongly encourage you to review and familiarize yourselves with the survey and the FAQ before filling it out. Until you have submitted your survey response on the last page of this survey questionnaire, you can always go back to previous sections and revise your answers.*
- 6. The survey is in parts pre-filled with information contained in your organisation’s original commitment. Please verify the data and make any necessary changes. If you would like to make additional changes not contained in the survey, please reach out to UN Women at GEF-accountability@unwomen.org.*
- 7. The survey link that you received is one survey for all your organisation or institution’s commitments. You may share this link with your colleagues within your organisation or institution to respond to specific commitments. Please be aware that sharing the link with multiple focal points means everyone can see the responses already provided and not two focal points can access the same survey link at the same time. If you require more than one survey link to ease coordination, please reach out to GEF-accountability@unwomen.org.*
- 8. For some questions, you are given the opportunity to expand on your response in an open text response. We suggest you are precise in your answer because the survey tool only allows responses of up to 750 characters (about 100 words in English).*
- 9. The boxes and tables of the survey can be expanded manually by moving your cursor on the right border of any table and dragging a right border of a box or table.*
- 10. All Commitment Makers that contribute to a collective commitment have contribution to the progress of the collective commitment. We thus encourage everyone to report on their contribution to the results achieved by the collective commitment. This also applies to collective commitments that have a designated secretariat or coordinator.*

In this section, we will collect information on the opportunities and challenges within Generation Equality. The information in this section is not commitment specific.

SECTION D: PROGRESS OF GENERATION EQUALITY

Roster: NEW ROSTER - %ROSTERTITLE%

generated by fixed list

D0_r

- 01 ... increased investments on gender equality
- 02 ... takes an intersectional lens (i.e., taking into account differentiated needs and interests of women and girls experiencing multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination)?
- 03 ... builds feminist leadership?
- 04 ... explicitly challenges or interrogates power dynamics – e.g., unequal systems, structures, and power relations within and between communities and countries that reinforce inequalities?

Rate the extent to which you think the implementation of Generation Equality...

I Please see the Global Acceleration Plan for more details on intersectionality, feminist leadership and transformation.

*Thank You.
You have reached the end of the survey.*

On the next page, you can review the status of your responses. At this stage, you can still return to review and revise your responses by selecting the Sections you would like to return to from the panel on the left. Once you click on 'complete' on the next page below 'note to supervisor', your responses are officially submitted and can no longer be changed. Once submitted, you can download an interview transcript to keep a record of your submission.

Thank you for contributing to fostering a culture of transparency and accountability for the commitments. For further information about the Accountability Framework, the commitments and the report, please visit commitments.generationequality.org.

APPENDIX A — INSTRUCTIONS

[1] B4: List of commitments's Commitments.

This is the current list of commitments by that UN Women has on file. If you would like to modify a commitment, please edit the text directly in the box where the commitment appears. If there are any missing commitments, please add them in the text box 'enter new item'. If there are commitments that are not applicable, or are duplicates, please remove them by clicking the "X" mark. Do not remove any commitments that have already been completed or are ongoing. You can indicate commitments that have been completed later in the survey.

[2] B5: In which region(s) are you implementing this commitment?

Please choose all regions that are applicable. If the commitment is being implemented globally, select all regions. The regional groupings represented below are based on UN categorization used to report on the Sustainable Development Goals.
